The 2018 AIA Ohio Convention

October 4 - 6, 2018
Renaissance Downtown
Toledo, Ohio

Exhibitor Opportunities

AIA Ohio is excited to bring the 2018 Convention to Toledo, October 4-6. The Convention Committee has been working to make this an outstanding convention for exhibitors as well as attendees. We have revamped opportunities for exhibitors and changed the schedule to include time for quality interactions with attendees, including non-compete time.

Highlights

■ Location, Location, Location

The Renaissance is easily accessible from most of the state and a desirable location for our architect members in Northern Ohio.

■ Non-Compete Exhibit Hall

AIA Ohio members always enjoy visiting the exhibit hall, so we are providing non-compete time for maximum exposure.

■ Promotion

In addition to our regular member communications that are sent to more than 2,000 AIA members, we broadcast monthly convention updates to our membership. Exhibitors will also be listed on the AIA Ohio Convention website.

Did you know?.. At the last AIA Ohio Convention, over 300 people registered for the convention, representing more than 150 different firms from across the state and region.

We strongly believe that the promotion and recognition of our sponsors and exhibitors prior to and during the convention is of considerable value and importance. This will be accomplished through the website, e-mail campaigns, printed materials, and by way of signage banners and personal introductions during the convention.

Looking for More?

We look forward to discussing the convention with you and exploring how we can work together to make this a mutually rewarding venture. If you would like to receive sponsor information as well, please contact us at aiaohio@assnoffices.com.

Exhibitor Information

The AIA Ohio Exhibits are a large component of the AIA Ohio Convention, and something that attendees look forward to each year. In an effort to make the exhibit time more beneficial for our exhibitors, we are offering non-compete exhibit time at the Renaissance. AIA Ohio will offer our attendees a lunch inside the exhibit hall on Friday to encourage attendance.
